You may decide not to venture from the comfort of the sitting room, where you can enjoy the stunning views over Little Loch Broom with its abundance of exciting wildlife and dramatic scenery.

However, if you do leave this haven, reward yourself with a visit to the beautiful secluded sandy beaches, stroll along the shore, and watch the wildlife including otters, seals, dolphins and porpoises.

For the serious bird watcher, or just a wildlife enthusiast, Sea and Golden Eagle sites including Gruinnard Island are close at hand, together with viewing opportunities for a wide range of other birds and animals.

Venture to The Black Isle and see Red Kite and dolphins.

Excursions to the South provide a chance to enjoy the magnificent Beinn Eighe and Liathach and the other Torridon mountains; or take the wonderful nerve jangling approach to Applecross over the Bealach na Ba pass.

The villages and towns of the highlands and coast provide a treasure-trove of craft shops and tea rooms. Alternatively take a boat trip from Ullapool or Gairloch.

First Coast Beach

Little Loch Broom

Wild goats and deer can be seen nearby. Marvel at the majestic beauty of Loch Broom looking towards Ullapool and the rugged ridge on An Teallach.

Within easy reach is the exciting RSPB Handa Island where dramatic sea bird colonies can be enjoyed.

Visit Inverewe Gardens and the Scottish National Trust Arboretum at the Kyle of Lochalsh. There's so much to see and enjoy.

Walk in Lael Forest with its' specimen trees in the forest garden. Visit Corrieshalloch Gorge or Rogie Falls to name just a few of the many treasures that this area can offer.
